From the moment you arrive, both the aura of the Hill Country and the welcoming staff will invite you to relax and immerse yourself in a variety of desirable amenities. Nestled with 4,000 secluded acres of rolling hills just outside Austin, Texas, you'll discover a full-service spa, four championship golf courses, indoor lap pool and outdoor pool, three extraordinary dining options - including the completely renovated 8212 Wine Bar & Grill and Barton's lobby lounge - and much more. After the big Texas sky gives way to starlight, you'll retire to a well-appointed guest room equipped with the latest features and the most elegant furnishings. However you choose to spend your free time at Barton Creek, you come to understand what they mean by "The Spirit of the Texas Hill Country", which creates a magical escape as unique as every sunset and as timeless as the hills themselves.
